

	Position Number:
	Position Title:	Infrastructure Worker Signal Electrical 4.3
Unit	Renewals Division	Location	Various
Duty No.	Duties
1.	Prewire racks and perform interface or stagework wiring in existing SRA Signalling installations in accordance with the relevant Safeworking Regulations, Standards & Specifications on Signalling Projects.
2.	Install, terminate & test power, signalling and telecommunications cables, terminals and associated equipment both internal & external.
3.	Observe and apply all relevant rules, regulations and instructions including attendance policies and instructions, rostered hours, wearing personal protective equipment, all safety and safeworking notices or instructions.
4.	Carry out works to maximise safety compliance and to priorities as assigned.
5.	Participate as a leader or member of a signalling team to assist in the delivery of signalling MPM, Capital and reliability works.
6.	Comply with policies and procedures to ensure the highest standards of OH&S, Safeworking, Environmental and Quality principles are practiced and maintained in the workplace.
7.	Monitor equipment performance to ensure timely replacement of defective or worn components as required.

WORKFORCE PLANNING

ADVERTISING & SELECTION CRITERIA

Qualifications, Requirements & Training

Essential –	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Demonstrated commitment to employee safety.</li> <li>• Possess trade certificate as an Electrical Tradesperson.</li> <li>• Assessed as competent level 4.3 (Signal Electrical).</li> <li>• Qualified for appointment to Signal Electrician.</li> <li>• Detailed knowledge of the types and contents of rail signalling documentation and maintenance procedures and requirement of signalling equipment.</li> <li>• Possess a current drivers licence.</li> <li>• Understanding of EEO policies and the OH&amp;S Act.</li> <li>• Demonstrated diagnostic, analytical and problem solving skills.</li> <li>• Effective oral and written communication skill.</li> <li>• Medically fit to undertake full duties of the position.</li> </ul>
Desirable-	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Competent in the application of rail bond welding.</li> <li>• Accredited to PO3, Protection Officer Level 3.</li> <li>• Competent in "Maintain Computer Based and Solid State Interlocking Equipment".</li> </ul> Competent in the use of MIMS maintenance applications of workorder management, and possession of computer skills to manager work processing and spreadsheet programs and e-mail communications.