NEW BOARD MEMBERS FOR RAILCORP

Tuesday 24 March 2009

Minister for Transport David Campbell today announced the appointment of four new members to the Board of RailCorp.

“The new members will join Railcorp Chairperson, Elizabeth Crouch, in guiding the organisation through a period of growth and improvement,” Mr Campbell said.

The new Board members are:

Nancy Milne OAM

Ms Milne is a leading commercial litigator and has held senior directorships with many large corporations. A former acting Judge of the District Court of NSW, Ms Milne brings a wealth of experience from a range of sectors including insurance, construction and financial services.

Colin Smith

Mr Smith has wide-ranging experience in the risk and insurance sectors and has worked with many large corporations and government bodies. A specialist in corporate governance and strategic risk assessment, Mr Smith is a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Greg Fletcher

Mr Fletcher is a chartered accountant with over 30 years experience and is a specialist in audit and risk management. Mr Fletcher has extensive experience working with state and national audit offices and has undertaken quality assurance work for major companies. He is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and the Institute of Internal Auditors

Geoff Amos

Mr Amos has over 38 years in transport roles including previous work at Railcorp and specialises in strategic planning, organisational development, negotiation and transport planning.

Mr Bob Plain will remain on the Railcorp Board providing critical advice on key operational issues.

“I would like to take the opportunity to thank the outgoing members of the RailCorp Board for their work over recent years,” Mr Campbell said.

“This is a crucial time for RailCorp and I welcome the new members and look forward to working with them to deliver better rail services for commuters in NSW.”
